LOK SABHA

The following Bills were introduced in Lok Sabha on the 19th December, 1985:—

BILL No. 211 OF 1985

A Bill further to amend the Salary, Allowances and Pension of Members of Parliament Act, 1954.

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Thirty-sixth Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. This Act may be called the Salary, Allowances and Pension of Members of Parliament (Amendment) Act, 1985.

Short title.

30 of 1954. 2. In section 3 of the Salary, Allowances and Pension of Members of Parliament Act, 1954 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act), for the words "seven hundred and fifty rupees", the words "one thousand rupees" shall be substituted.

Amendment of
section 3.

3. In section 5 of the principal Act,—

(a) in sub-section (1),—

Amendment of
section 5.

(i) in clause (b), for the words "if the journey", the words "if the journey, being a journey during a sitting of the Committee," shall be substituted;

(ii) for the second proviso and the Explanation, the following proviso shall be substituted, namely:—

"Provided further that nothing in the first proviso shall apply, if the member performs the journey by air for visiting any place in India not more than once during a sitting of the Committee.";

(b) for sub-section (2), the following sub-section and Explanations shall be substituted, namely:—

“(2) Every member shall be entitled to an amount equal to the fair by air for each single journey by air (other than a journey referred to in section 4 of the second proviso to sub-section (1) of this section or section 6C) performed by him from any place in India to any other place in India during his term of office as such member:

Provided that no member shall be entitled to any payment under this sub-section in respect of any journeys in excess of sixteen performed by him during any year.

Explanation 1—The provisions of clause (c) of sub-section (1) and of sub-section (2) of section 4 shall, so far as may be, apply to travelling allowances payable under this section as they apply to travelling allowances payable under that section.

Explanation II—For the purposes of this section, “year” means,—

(i) in the case of a person who is a member at the commencement of the Salary, Allowances and Pension of Members of Parliament (Amendment) Act, 1985, the year beginning with such commencement and each of the subsequent years;

(ii) in the case of a person who becomes a member after such commencement, the year beginning with the date on which his term of office as such member commences and each of the subsequent years.

Amendment of section 6D.

4. In section 6D of the principal Act, for the words, brackets and figures “sub-section (1) of section 5”, the words, brackets and figures “sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) of section 5” shall be substituted.

Substitution of new section for section 8.

5. For section 8 of the principal Act, the following section shall be substituted, namely:—

Constituency allowance and amenities.

“8. A member shall be entitled to such constituency allowance and to such medical facilities for himself and for members of his family and to such housing, telephone, water, electricity facilities or such amount in cash in lieu of all or any of such facilities, as may be prescribed by rules under section 9.”

Amendment of section 8A.

6. In section 8A of the principal Act, in sub-section (1),—

(a) for the words “three hundred rupees”, at both the places where they occur, the words “five hundred rupees” shall be substituted;

(b) in the second proviso, the words “so, however, that in no case the pension payable to such person shall exceed five hundred rupees per mensem” shall be committed,

(c) after the second proviso, the following proviso shall be added, namely:—

“Provided also that every person, who has served for any period as a member of the Provisional Parliament and who is not entitled to any pension under the foregoing provisions of this sub-section, shall, with effect from the commencement of the Salary, Allowances and Pension of Members of Parliament (Amendment) Act, 1985, be entitled to a pension of five hundred rupees per mensem.”

(d) the Explanation shall be renumbered as Explanation 1 and in the Explanation as so renumbered, for the words, brackets and figures “clauses (iv and (v) sub-section (1)”, the words “this sub-section” shall be substituted;

(e) after Explanation 1 as so renumbered, the following Explanation shall be inserted, namely:—

“Explanation 2.—Where in any General Election held for the purpose of constituting a new House of the People, poll could not be taken in any Parliamentary constituency or any part thereof on the date originally fixed under clause (d) of section 30 of the Representation of the People Act, 1951 on account of snow-falls or other weather conditions of an extreme nature in such constituency or part thereof or on account of such constituency or part thereof being inaccessible for any reason, the member elected to such House from such constituency shall be deemed, for the purposes of this sub-section, to have served as a member of such House from the date of publication, under section 73 of the said Act, of the notification relating to such House.”

43 of 1951.

7. After section 8A. the following section shall be inserted, namely:—

Insertion of new section 8B.

“8B. There may be paid to a member by way of a repayable advance such sum of money not exceeding twenty thousand rupees as may be determined by rules made in this behalf under section 9 for the purchase of a conveyance.”

Advances for purchase of conveyance.

8. In section 9 of the principal Act, in sub-section (3), for clause (f), the following clauses shall be substituted, namely:—

Amendment of section 9.

“(f) the constituency allowance and medical and other facilities mentioned in section 8 and the amount to be paid in cash in lieu of such facilities;

(ff) the amount which may be paid by way of repayable advance for the purchase of conveyance; the rate of interest thereof and the mode of recovery of such amount and interest thereon; and”.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Keeping in view the recommendations of the Joint Committee on Salaries and Allowances of Members of Parliament and the demand made by the members, it is proposed to amend the Salary, Allowances and Pension of Members of Parliament Act, 1954, with a view to provide for the following:—

- (i) increase in salary from Rs. 750 to Rs. 1,000 per month,
- (ii) facility of 16 single air journeys throughout the year to members without any limitation as to its use only during the session;
- (iii) (a) increase in minimum pension of ex-members of Parliament from Rs. 300 to Rs. 500 per month and the abolition of the ceiling with respect to pension;
- (b) in cases where the elections are not held due to weather conditions, etc., such as Ladakh in Jammu and Kashmir and Mandi in Himachal Pradesh, such period should be counted towards their eligibility period for grant of pension;
- (c) grant of pension to the members of the Constituent Assembly who are not at present entitled to the same;
- (iv) advance for purchase of conveyance.

2. The Bill seeks to achieve the above objects.

NEW DELHI;

H. K. L. BHAGAT.

The 19th December, 1985.

FINANCIAL MEMORANDUM

Clause 2 of the Bill seeks to amend section 3 of the Salary, Allowances and Pension of Members of Parliament Act, 1954, to increase the salary of the members of Parliament from Rs. 750 per mensem to Rs. 1,000 per mensem.

2. Clause 3 of the Bill seeks to amend section 5 of the Act to provide for the facility of sixteen single air journeys throughout the year to members of Parliament without any limitation as to its use only during the sessions instead of the existing eight to and fro intermediate air journeys during the sessions.

3. Clause 5 of the Bill seeks to substitute a new section for the existing section 8 to provide for payment of constituency allowance to a member and medical facilities to such member and the members of his family.

4. Clause 6 of the Bill seeks to amend section 8A of the Act for providing for the following:—

(i) increase in the minimum pension of ex-members of Parliament from Rs. 300 to Rs. 500 without any ceiling on maximum pension;

(ii) grant of pension to persons who have been members of Provisional Parliament/Constituent Assembly.

5. The above provisions would involve expenditure from the Consolidated Fund of India to the tune of Rs. 2.32 crores.

6. The provisions of the Bill will not involve any other expenditure either recurring or non-recurring.

MEMORANDUM REGARDING DELEGATED LEGISLATION

Clause 8 of the Bill which seeks to amend sub-section (3) of section 9 of the Salary, Allowances and Pension of Members of Parliament Act, 1954 empowers the Joint Committee of both the Houses of Parliament to make rules to provide for certain additional matters. These matters relate to the constituency allowance and the medical and other facilities which a member shall be entitled to under section 8 of the Act and the amount to be paid in cash in lieu of such facilities and the amount which may be paid to a member by way of repayable advance for the purchase of conveyance, the rate of interest thereon and the mode of recovery of such amount and the interest thereon. The matters with respect to which rules may be made under the proposed amendments relate to matters of detail or procedure. The delegation of legislative power is thus normal in character.

Insertion
of new section 1A.

"1A. There shall be paid to the President by way of emoluments fifteen thousand rupees per mensem".

Emolu-
the President.

5. In section 2 of the principal Act, in sub-section (1), for the words "fifteen thousand rupees", the words "thirty thousand rupees" shall be substituted.

Amendment of
section 2.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Clause (3) of article 59 of the Constitution provides, inter alia, that the President shall be entitled to such emoluments and privileges as may be determined by Parliament by law and, until provision in that behalf is so made, to such emoluments, allowances and privileges as are specified in the Second Schedule to the constitution.

So far, no law providing for emoluments of the President has been enacted by Parliament and as a result, the President is, at present, entitled to the emoluments provided in the Second Schedule to the Constitution. The pension payable to a retiring President was provided for in 1951 by the President's Pension Act, 1951 and no change has so far been made in the amount as provided by the said Act.

This Bill seeks to amend the President's Pension Act to increase the emoluments payable to the President and the pension payable to a retiring President. According to the amendments proposed in the Bill, the President will be entitled to emoluments at the rate of Rs. 15,000 per mensem and a retiring President would be entitled to pension at the rate of Rs. 30,000 per annum.

The Bill seeks to achieve the above objects.
